

Memorandum of Understanding Between
California Institute for Telecommunications and Information Technology at the University of California, San Diego and
Indian Institute of Technology-Hyderabad, India

This non-binding Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is entered into by and between The Regents of the University of California, on behalf of the California Institute for Telecommunications and Information Technology at the University of California, San Diego ("UC San Diego"), and the Indian Institute of Technology-Hyderabad ("IIT-Hyderabad"). UC San Diego and IIT-Hyderabad agree that cooperation in higher education and research would be mutually beneficial. The areas of cooperation may include, subject to mutual consent, any desirable and feasible activity that will contribute to the development of cooperative relationships between the parties. Such interactions may include:

- a. Exchanges of faculty;
- b. Exchanges of advanced graduate and professional school students;
- c. Joint research, cultural and educational activities; and
- d. Special short term programs and visits.

The primary contacts for this MOU are Uday Desai, Director of the Indian Institute of Technology-Hyderabad, and Ramesh Rao, Director of the California Institute for Telecommunications and Information Technology. The parties may enter into specific written agreements hereunder to clarify and define the nature, extent and terms of operation for the proposed collaborations, including intellectual property ownership and funding issues. Prior to entering into any such agreements, these agreements will require the approval of appropriate officers from each institution. For agreed upon activities, both institutions will make available their facilities and staffs as further defined in such agreements. This MOU will be valid for five (5) years unless terminated by one of the parties. Either institution may withdraw from this MOU, provided written notification of the withdrawal is given to the other institution at least 60 days prior to the withdrawal date. This MOU may be renewed for another period of five (5) years upon mutual written consent of the two institutions before the expiration date. This MOU is made in English, which is the authentic text. This MOU will take effect on the later date of signing by both parties.
