Department of DESIGN

Ph.D. in Design (Full time / Part time) provides a platform to pursue practice based and practice led research in art, design, culture, creative practices and related areas.

Practice-based Research,

Practice-based Research is an original investigation undertaken in order to gain new knowledge partly by means of practice and the outcomes of that practice. Claims of originality and contribution to knowledge may be demonstrated through creative outcomes which may include artifacts such as images, music, designs, models, digital media or other outcomes such as performances and exhibitions Whilst the significance and context of the claims are described in words.

Practice-led Research,

Practice-led Research is concerned with the nature of practice and leads to new knowledge that has operational significance for that practice. The main focus of the research is to advance knowledge about practice, or to advance knowledge within practice. In a doctoral thesis, the results of practice-led research may be fully described in text form without the inclusion of a creative outcome.

International Exchange / Joint Ph.D. Program

Possible opportunities exist for Ph.D. students to pursue joint research programs with International universities. The research would be jointly supervised by team of researchers from IIT Hyderabad and partner University. Ph.D. Students can spend up to 12 months in partner university for their research work
