

Mr. DSK Rao, an Indian national is the Founder Director of GYANTECH INFORMATION SYSTEMS PRIVATE LIMITED. He is an Innovator and also visiting faculty & consultant to several Engineering & Management colleges. He is a Post Graduate from prestigious Hindu College, University of Delhi and also have several global certifications in Computers and Management besides several publications in Indian & Foreign Journals. Mr. DSK Rao has 25 years of local & global IT experience. Mr.Rao worked for ECIL, (a Government of India Undertaking) for 18 years wherein he handled several prestigious client IT projects like Food Corporation of India, Delhi Police, HZL, HCL etc and finally a massive Real Time Software Development project for Indian Army/DLRL. As Vice President (Offshore Projects & Training) for Goldstone Technologies, Mr. Rao has mentored in India & USA teams in IBM eCommerce, Forte and Business Intelligence for the next 2.5 years. He was responsible for international operations and alliances, leading thought leadership initiatives, managing Competency and Solution units and management information systems at Goldstone Technologies. Mr.Rao then worked as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for RaasiSoft, Hyderabad and successfully handled the multi crore RTA Smart Card egovernance project. His efforts as CEO for RaasiSoft had set the path for a quantum jump in the company's operations. Mr. Rao floated his own company Viradi Software Consultants for the next 3 years. The company had developed an Integrated IT Product for computerization of all Agricultural activities at the grass root level and had also tied up with Keltron for marketing the same. During this period Mr.Rao had visited several Rural Areas in India to study their problems to suggest improvements. Simultaneously he was on Board of Several Indian & Global IT/BPO companies as Advisor / Chief Consultant technically & managerially guiding them in their growth. He then worked as Vice President(Planning & Technology) for GSS America Infotech Limited for a year and President, Cybermate Infotek Limited and successfully turned it around into profits. Mr.Rao is associated with several professional, Cultural & philanthropic bodies and is a well known speaker in India & Abroad. Mr.Rao has many publications to his credit. He has traveled extensively to several countries including USA, UK, Israel, China, Malaysia and Middle East. Mr.Rao is a member of UN Solution Exchange in India and is also active in Climate Change & 'Food & Nutrition' group. In mid nineties he was instrumental in Computerization of Food Corporation of India, NFL Naya Nangal , NDRI Karnal & Market Yards. He is also very actively associated with post harvest technologies and solar based food processing initiatives. He is the Secretary for Hyderabad Chapter of Cyber Society of India(www.cysi.in) besides active participant in other bodies like CII, NASSCOM, ESC etc. He had successfully executed consultancy for PGD-ITMA course at NAARM (www.naarm.ernet.in) in 2008 and and 2 year AICTE approved PGDMA course in 2011 .He was also Advisor to IIIT, Hyderabad and on the Committee of ICRISAT for TePP based Innovations.

GISPL administers an Agribusiness Knowledge Centre on a PPP basis at NAARM, Hyderabad. AKC is working on Panchayat/Community based ERP for sustainable agriculture and disseminating good agriculture practices. GISPL is also in the process of setting up CoE/Innovation Centres in few colleges.