	Does it mean candidate submitting an out dated caste certificate is ineligible for that reserved post? where he applied for renewal of the same and even after getting the latest one. Here its happened in IITH/2021/Rec/NF/09 Dated 11-09- 2021. I applied for the post of Technical Superintendent (Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering) allotted an application No. 1643. Initially, IIT Hyderabad did not shortlist me and status is like Outdated Caste Certificate and asked for the submission of grievance on or before 10th Dec 2021 without any provision for submission of attachment. The grievance submitted like My application is not shortlisted with reason Outdated caste certificate. If you are giving me an opportunity, I am ready to submit the latest OBC Certificate immediately. The same is also indicated in the application form. On 6th Jan 2022, I received an email from IITH, and I was not shortlisted. While applying, I also submitted my old OBC Certificate along with the acknowledgement card of my application of regenerating latest OBC certificate and also mentioned the same in grievance. Is there any provision that I may not belong to be an OBC reserved candidate in between this span?	Please refer to the Instruction no. 6(5) of General Instructions of the Institute's advertisement no. IITH/2021/Rec/NF/09 Dated 11-09- 2021, where the instructions related to the OBC certificate has been given. (Copy of Advertisement is enclosed) The PIO shall provide the information that is available with him but can not provide information against the hypothetical questions.
